SUBJECT: Persuaded to Embrace the Promises of God in Faith

PRAISES, BLESSINGS, GLORY and HONOR to OUR GREAT KING, LORD, and SAVIOR--JESUS CHRIST. We exalt and magnify His Excellent Name--Our Redeemer, Our Strong Tower, Our Fortress, Our Refuge, Our Deliverer, Our Salvation, LORD, and KING--in whom we trust. Hallelujah! Bless His Holy Name. We honor all Prophets, Prophetesses, Bishops, Pastors, Mothers, Elders, Evangelists, Teachers, Ministers, Deacons, Saints, and You our Beloved Friends. We are blessed from within, encouraging hearts to be, "Persuaded to Embrace the Promises of God in Faith." Hebrews 11 speaks about the Heroes of faith--those who were persuaded of the promises of God and they fully embraced them. Hebrews 11:13, These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. They were much persuaded through faith in their God. As James 2:17-24 states, "Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. 18) Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. 19) Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. 20) But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? 21) Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? 22) Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? 23) And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. 24) Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only." Know assuredly, God made a better promise to Abraham in his old age, according to Romans 4:17-25 which states, "As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were. 18) Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. 19) And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb: 20) He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; 21) And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform. 22) And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. 23) Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; 24) But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; 25) Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification." Romans 5:1-2, Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: 2) By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. God's promises are unfailing. 1 King 8:56 states, "Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant." God's promises are grounded in Jesus Christ the Lord. 2 Corinthians 1:20 states, "For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us." God's promises are of infinite value.

2 Peter 1:4 states, "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust." And lastly, God's promises culminate everlasting life. 1 John 2:25 states, "And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life." May the Lord Jesus Christ continue to bless you richly.
